This is Nicolas. He lives in a mountain full of grass. His home is at the very top, in the middle

Nicolas loves science as well as being famous

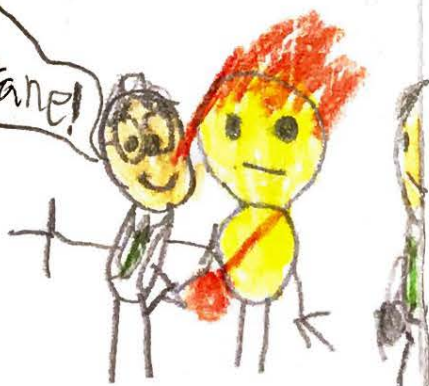

He goes to a school called St. Jesus. Sometimes Nicolas gets a little tired at school

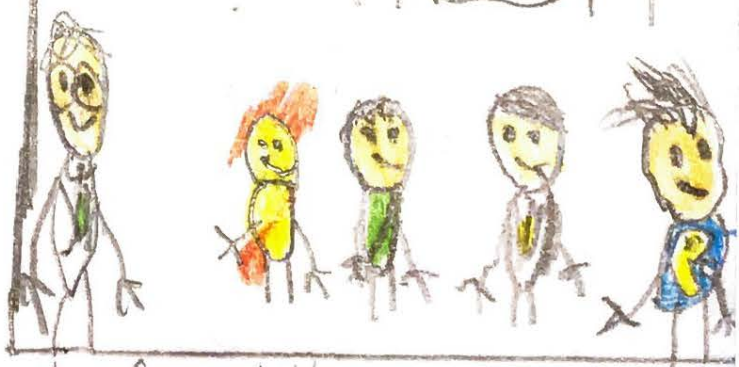

His mum and dad signed him up for a science camp to show and learn about technology. 3 friends of Hi, welcome to our place 29 Arkitane!

The Proffessor said "that all technologies for DNA were made by a super power!"

The four children were looking and talking about the biggest microscope on earth.

Nicolas said "I wonder what is the size of the biggest microscope"

Suddenly two mean ugly robbers pushed Nicolas down

Nicolas' head hit the big microscope and it started cracking into pieces

But then Nicolas started to feel funny. His muscles started to grow and then the robber started to run away from Nicolas as Nicolas started to fly ②

Nicolas said, 'and now you are vanquished! You can't be rich, get away from here, dumb robber!'

Nicolas was back home. He was wondering why he had super powers. He was watching the news.

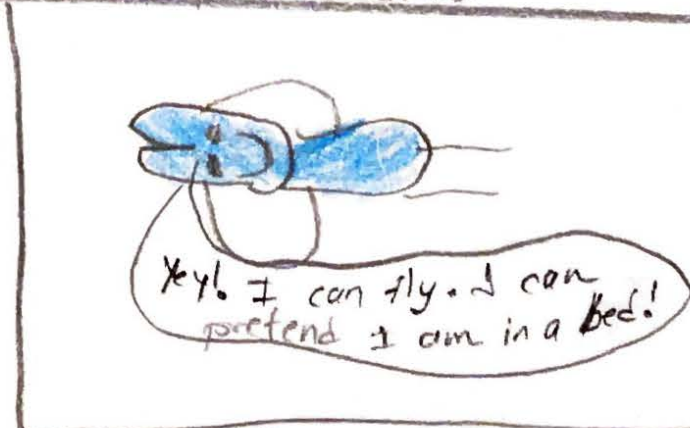

A 9 year old boy actually accidentally broke the glass in the biggest microscope with his head.

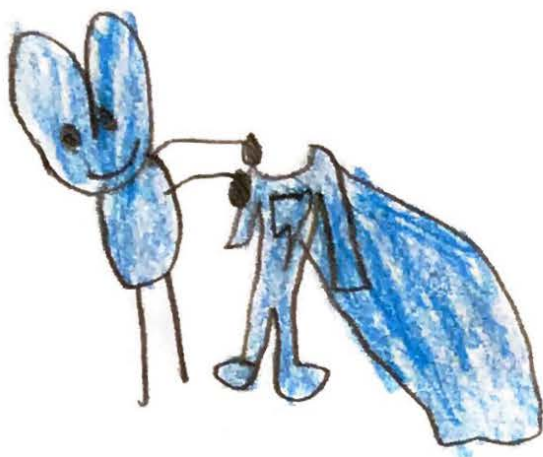

Nicolas said "I think I am going to make some things in the present right now."

This is the funny Bunny, Nicolas' funniest pet. The funny Bunny wants to transform his DNA into superhero DNA.

The funny Bunny said "can I make the same costume as Nicolas but just blue-ish?"

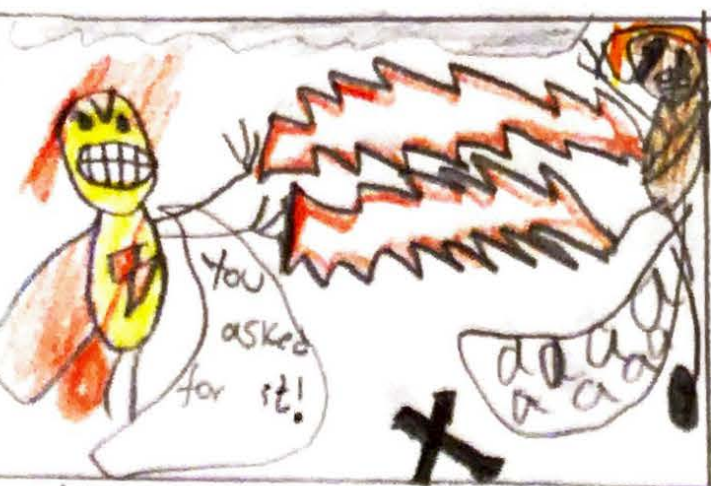

"Yay! I made my own costume said the Funny Bunny."

Nicolas is ready to find his first enemy - The Goblin

Everyone was running for their lives

The Goblin has been defeated by Super Nicolas

the Funny Bunny was going to catch The Goblin

But then Nicolas went to the playground with his friends. Instead of playing he read the news.

This is what the newspaper looks like.

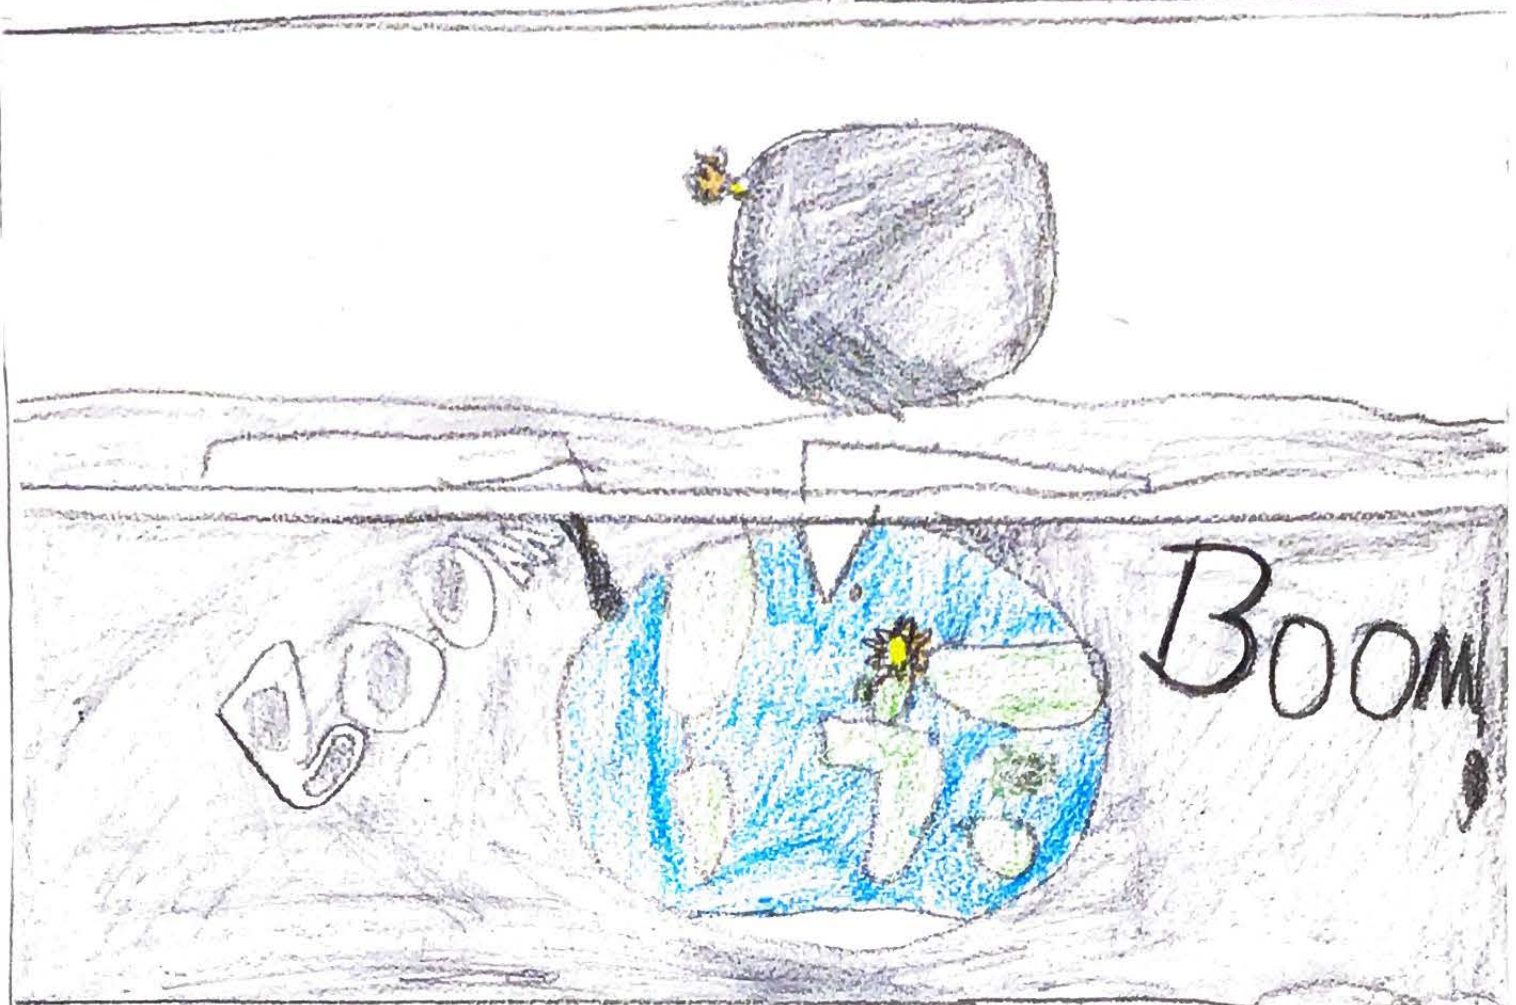

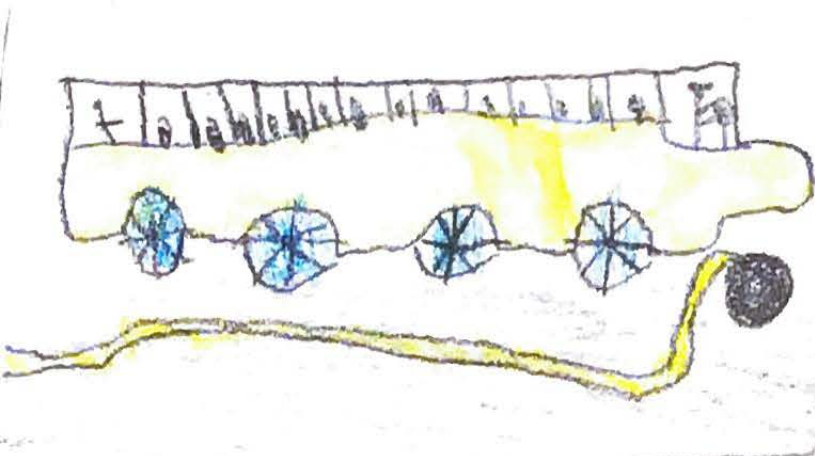

By now, The Goblin was climbing up to his father called 'The Darkness'.

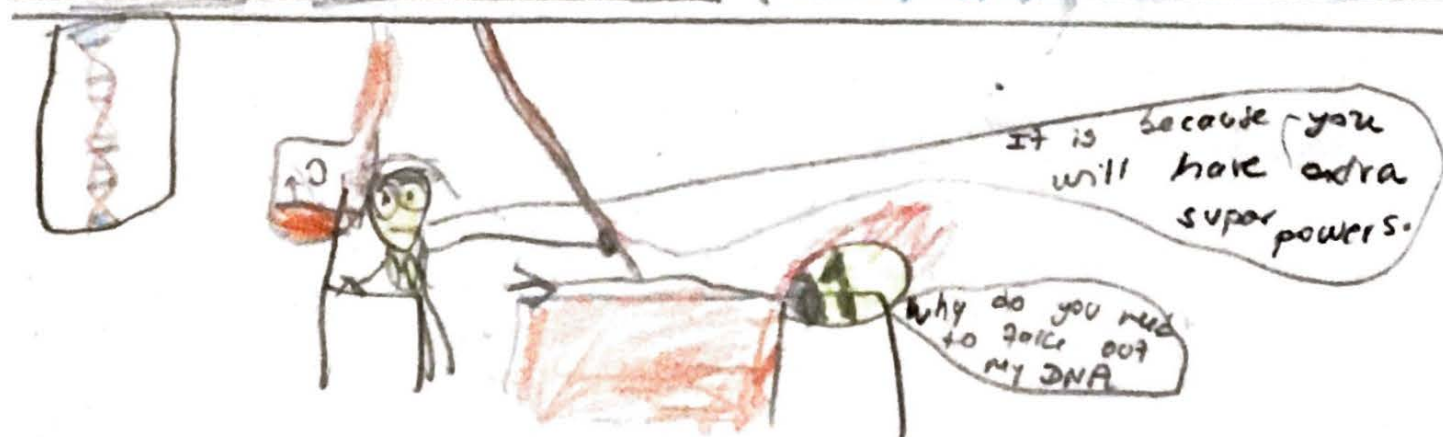

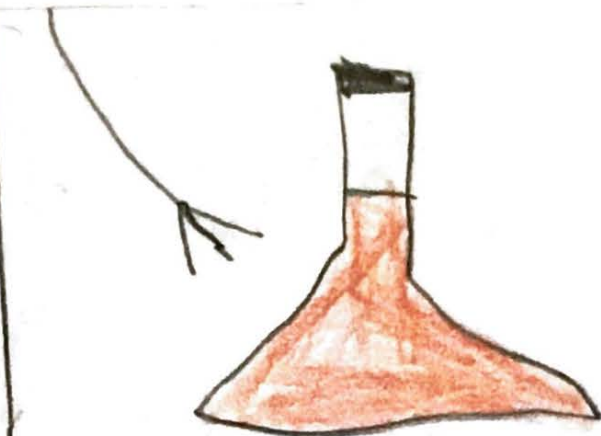

Now Super Nicolas is the most famous hero of all time.

to kill them, specially the hero, Nicolas.

However, Nicolas was going to find the greatest gift on earth, a master.

Once Nicolas had a master, the Master trained him to defeat the darkness.

But then Nicolas was kind of falling and falling. He was a little hurt.

After a while, he got better.

Nicolas and his pet,
the Funny Bunny, earned a new costume.

The Action movie kids gave Nicolas and The Funny Bunny a lightsaver. Now
They are ready to defeat the darkness.
Other humans joined in, with green and blue lightsavers. Nicolas' was red.
